MDUSBC President Libbi Fletcher (r) congratulates Women's Series Invitational winner Sarah Dorow

SARAH DOROW WINS WOMEN'S SERIES INVITATIONAL AT SHELBY LANES

Sarah Dorow of Midland won the Metro Detroit USBC (MDUSBC) Women's Series Invitational event on Sunday with a 224-162 triumph over Victoria Giardina of Shelby Twp. Dorow took home the top prize of $500, while Giardina earned $250.

Dorow was the third qualifier in the invitational field of 15 with a four-game total of 801 on games of 191, 211, 203 and 196 to advance to the stepladder competition.

In her first match, Dorow beat Darlene Dysart of Southfield 238-210. Dysart cashed for $100. In her second match, she beat Brandie Reamy-Johnson of Taylor 220-170 before advancing to the final match. Reamy-Johnson earned $150.

Giardina was the top qualifier with 855 on games of 175, 209, 206 and a finishing game of 265 to secure the top spot advancing her to the stepladder finals.

The top 15 bowlers qualified on the points and participation level of the five-event Women's Series and were invited to participate in the special event at Shelby Lanes.

After the competition, the event participants were awarded their checks during a luncheon.

Samantha Rhoads of Allen Park won the Women's Series cup with 809 points for $600 for the five-event series, followed by Olivia Clark of Jackson with 731 points for $300 and Julie Oczepek of Vassar with 704 points for $200.
