TERESA CATCHPOLE REPEATS IN MDUSBC SENIOR QUEENS AT SHORE LANES

Defending champion Teresa Catchpole of Macomb won the Metro Detroit USBC Senior Queens on Saturday with a 279-247 triumph over Sandra Schultz of Macomb at Shore Lanes in St. Clair Shores.

Catchpole was top qualifier for the stepladder finals with a four-game total of 928 on games of 249, 227, 215 and 237. As the top seed, she had to wait for the challenger to emerge. She took home the top prize of $200.

Schultz qualified fourth with 829. In the matches leading up to the finals she beat Denise Mintz of Canton 69-56 in a three-frame rolloff after tying at 201 and Krista Winbigler of Macomb 215-189. Schultz cashed for $150, Winbigler $125 and Mintz $100.

This was the 11th year of the MDUSBC Senior Queens. Initial qualifying was done by senior women 50 years of age and older with their actual all-events of the recently completed MDUSBC Women's Championship. The top bowlers advanced to the qualifying finals.

Other cashers for $75 each were Toary Taylor of Redford, Michelle Turner of Detroit, Clystine Henderson of Detroit and Juana Torres of Detroit.

The MDUSBC Senior Queens Tournament is operated by the Metro Detroit USBC, which serves over 40,000 adult and youth bowlers in the Metropolitan Detroit market and is the largest local association of the United States Bowling Congress.
