MDUSBC Director John Vorpagel (c) congratulates MDUSBC Senior Queens champion Toary Taylor (l) and runner-up Gwendolyn Finley

TOARY TAYLOR CAPTURES MDUSBC SENIOR QUEENS AT CENTURY BOWL

Toary Taylor of Redford won the Metro Detroit USBC Senior Queens on Saturday with a 220-190 triumph over Gwendolyn Finley of Detroit at Century Bowl in Waterford.

Taylor was the top qualifier for the stepladder finals with a four-game total of 908 on games of 221, 193, 248 and 246. As the top seed, she had to wait for the challenger to emerge. She took home the top prize of $200.

Finley qualified second with 860. She defeated Sandra Schultz of Macomb 254-174 to advance to the championship match. Finley cashed for $150.

Schultz qualified fourth with 815 and defeated Christine Wissinger of Clinton Township 224-179 in the first match of the stepladder. Schultz took home $125 and Wissinger $100 for their efforts.

This was the 12th year of the MDUSBC Senior Queens. Initial qualifying was done by senior women 50 years of age and older with their actual all-events of the recently completed MDUSBC Women's Championship. The top bowlers advanced to the qualifying finals.

Other cashers for $75 each were defending champion Teresa Catchpole of Macomb, Jeanne Gebbia of Dearborn, Carmeletha Allen of Highland Park, Dabrita Darden of Farmington Hills, Denise Mintz of Canton and Simonne Brown-Griggs of Westland.

The MDUSBC Senior Queens Tournament is operated by the Metro Detroit USBC, which serves nearly 40,000 adult and youth bowlers in the Metropolitan Detroit market and is the largest local association of the United States Bowling Congress.
